ABOUT STEVE

Described by my colleagues as having high intellect and high integrity, my closest friends would add serious and deeply thoughtful, but also whimsical, light-hearted and fiercely generous and kind.

As a man of faith, I operate from a deep and abiding sense of commitment – to my family, community, and an ever-expanding sphere of concerns where I might make a substantive and lasting impact. While described as a leader, I only really care about making a difference.

Giving, and giving generously, is my 'Why'.

CATALYZING CONCERNS

- ✓ digital strategy & transformation for traditional & legacy IT organizations
- ✓ IT business value creation via end-user experience engineering & advocacy
- ✓ Leader-Leader culture transformation (giving command & releasing control)
- ✓ mentorship, and coaching the next-generation of inspirational leaders
- ✓ workplace dignity, equality & inclusion by honoring our commonality & respecting our diversity
- ✓ community concerns of mental health, addiction disorders & homelessness
