

ESSENTIAL RECOVERY DEFINITIONS

- the role of thoughts | emotions | attitudes | behaviors

- Attitude: a real-time stable and enduring assessment of a person, place or thing, based on a subjective judgement and measured on a scale ranging from negative to positive.
 - they can form and stabilize quickly from an abrupt experience, or
 - they can form more slowly from an accumulation of smaller experiences (e.g., frustration, resentment, perceived injustice, etc.), and
 - they tend to remain in place until deliberately changed, and
 - become cemented in place just like thinking patterns and behaviors